

It should be noted that Oil City had a lot of good offensive players in the 1920s and 1930s who should be on these lists but not enough info could be gleaned from newspaper accounts. These players include Johnny Waitkus and Bill Lilly (1930-31), Pete Bell (1933), Joe Szafran and Johnny Toth (1933-34), Johnny Klesc, Paul Mitcham and Paul Magee (1936-38), Ray Vaughn (1923-24) and from earlier than that, Jack and Dick Cleaves from the WWI-Pandemic I eras.
